DIRECTORS NOTE

Welcome aboard the S.S. American! Anything Goes is a show that lives in the sweet spot where comedy, romance, and sheer musical joy all collide. Part of the magic of this musical is the world it drops us into: a silly, cartoon-bright version of the 1930s where Prohibition-era rules bend, identities get swapped, chaos reigns, and everyone seems to have an unreasonable amount of free time for mischief. It's a place where gangsters disguise themselves as ministers, socialites fall for sailors, and tap breaks erupt out of nowhere—and somehow, it all feels perfectly natural. It's escapism at its finest. It's big, it's bold, and—most of all—it dances.

That's why I want to give particular thanks to our choreographer, Kyle Weiler. Kyle has directed and choreographed Anything Goes twice before, and having him join us for this production has been a true privilege. He brought a level of artistry, clarity, and tap expertise that elevated every rehearsal. More importantly, he taught our students—patiently and brilliantly—how to dance this show with confidence and style. A tap-heavy musical like this is nothing without a strong choreographer, and Kyle's work shines through every number.

Thank you, Kyle, for sharing your deep well of knowledge, for championing our students, and for giving this production its heartbeat.

And a fun fact to close: the set you're seeing on the LNHS stage is Kyle's original Anything Goes set from his very first production of the show. A perfect full-circle moment for a production built on legacy, craft, and joy.

Enjoy the voyage!
